The Cuban Institute of Friendship with the Peoples (ICAP), social and mass organizations in Cuba and the Cuban Chapter of the Network in Defense of Humanity, are calling for the participation of friends of Cuba in the III World Meeting of Solidarity with Cuba, Cuba Solidarity 2014.

This meeting of the Movement of Solidarity with Cuba, is the continuity of the two previous editions, and will represent the international support to the validity of the model of social justice that symbolizes Cuba and its viability as an alternative for "a better and possible world" that the people of world are fighting for.

Amid a constant aggression, media disinformation and global crisis, this will be an encounter that will enable the construction of initiatives, proposals and exchanges of strategies in solidarity with Cuba, in order to improve our instruments and struggle mechanisms to spread truth more effectively, holding on to it as a banner, and reach out with it where necessary.

Upon calling our III World Meeting, the Cuban people are still getting the impact of 50 years of economic war and inhumane blockade, which we will continue withstanding and overcoming, plus the vain and unaltered imperialist attempts of internationally isolate our Revolution. Our people will remain united, building and improving our socialism, and contributing our modest experiences to the integration processes being carried out in the Latin-American region, offering viable alternatives bracing for the best in the future of our children, and against the overwhelming failure of the neoliberal capitalism.

Accompanied by the anti-imperialist, visionary and humanist thinking of Marti and Fidel, eternal leaders and exponents of our traditions, Cuba confirms its international vocation and solidarity with all the noble causes for the benefit of the peoples and the enjoyment of their fundamental rights: freedom, peace and social justice.

From this Afro-Asian Latin American and Caribbean island, on the 55th anniversary of its Revolution, we would like to encourage the forces, movements, groups, personalities and persons of good will, to emphasize on everything that unites us, respecting our differences, that as a last resort constitute other of our strong wealth: diversity; and we look forward to meeting you from October 27th to 29th, 2014.

This Encounter will be the "jury of millions" summoned by the Hero of the Republic of Cuba, Gerardo Hernandez Nordelo, in which we will still be, if necessary, engaged in the struggle, until victory, to have back our Five antiterrorist fighters.

See you in 2014!
